

Macon State College Company of Player's Mission Statement

The Macon State College Company of Players exists to provide students with supportive opportunities to learn about the art and craft of theatre and to provide experiences that enrich the aesthetic environment and promote the appreciation of the arts among the students, faculty, staff, and members of the Middle Georgia community.